Historic Highlights of Vietnam GI Movement on Video

Only the Beginning—This anti-war propaganda film was widely used around bases and in-country in organizing anti-war GIs. It has good exposure of the nature of the Vietnam War and crimes of the U.S. government. Footage shows torching of villages, murdering prisoners and sets a mood you won't forget.

Also shows portions of Dewey Canyon III where thousands of vets threw their medals back at the congress in protest of the war.

RAW March—circa. 1970- Footage of VVAW actions where vets and quakers reenacted around the U.S. the invasions of U.S. troops into Vietnamese villages. Shows the inhumane treatment and brutality.

Winter Soldier Investigation—circa. 1971-Footage of Vietnam War crimes tribunal. This testimony was read into the congressional record.

Incredible footage for youth—along with discussion—as an intro. into things they may not be familiar with. —All 3 on 1 VHS for $20

Veterans Speak-Out; During the Gulf War veterans from all eras, Vietnam, Korea, WWII and Gulf War resisters, traveled to "the vets speak out against the war" in San Francisco. The speak out was called by VVAWAI and the United Bay Area Vets Against the War in the Middle East (UBAVME). Edited version, Ex-Warriors, Anti-Warriors done by Collision Course Video Productions, about 30 min.-$10
